

Course Representatives Profile

As a Course Rep, you will have the chance to represent your peers to the academics that run your course, providing a credible voice and leading change.

Duties and responsibilities:

- Make yourself known and accessible to your peers
- Attend relevant course and Students' Union meetings
- Gather termly feedback from your peers and close the feedback loop
- Complete the required induction training sessions
- Take part in academic campaigns
- Work closely with your School Reps

Training and support:

All Course Reps will be given an induction explaining the role and responsibilities of Course Reps and covering the basic skills and information required to undertake the role. Further support will be available throughout the academic year.

Time commitment:

8 hours per term in addition to time collecting coursemate feedback

Qualifications required:

No prior experience or qualifications are required for this post.

Method of appointment:

Course Reps are elected into post through online elections held in October.

Other opportunities you may be interested in:

- Student Council member
- Executive Officer
- NUS Delegate

Benefits:

- Make changes at your university
- Transferable skills (eg. time management, networking, problem solving)
- HEAR Accreditation
- Be in with a chance to win an NTSU Award