So what is Jailbreak?

How far can you get away from Nottingham in the space of 36 hours, without spending any money on travel?

You'll be raising money for charity too, collecting donations before you head out!

The Basics

Starts at 8am on Tuesday 24th
March

Teams of 2-4 people

£25 team fundraising target

Each team picks a charity

Keep us updated!

Why should you do Jailbreak?

It's a free holiday!

You'll have amazing stories to tell!

The chance to win some awesome prizes for completing challenges, or even winning Jailbreak!

You'll be supporting great charities!

How does Jailbreak help charities?

Each team commits to raising a minimum of £25 for a charity

Ideally for one of Trent RAG's nominated charities

There is a fundraising award for the team that gets the most money!

What can I spend money on?

Anything but transport!

You can try to blag free meals or overnight stays

Take some cash, ideally Euros and a credit/debit card for emergencies

Any money donated to you must be kept aside and added to your total after the trip

What about getting back?

Completely up to you!

Get return tickets

Feel free to spend some time
there!

Make sure you let your lecturers know that you might miss some classes!

What about safety?

NTSU Opportunities team will be tracking your progress

Check in every 3 hours

Tell us about every transport change

Travel insurance and emergency contact details

What to do overnight

We don't want you travelling overnight

Find somewhere safe to stay

Overnight buses/trains/flights are great options

Contact NTU Security if anything goes wrong

Challenges

We'll be setting challenges to complete while doing Jailbreak, such as:

- Most bizarre place name
- Funniest photo
- Best souvenir
- Represent your Society or Club in a photo

There'll be a Challenge Winner award!

Sounds great, how do I sign up?

Fill out our team registration form!

Deadline for sign ups is 29th February

Set up a Just Giving page and send us the link

Attend a compulsory welcome session!
